4th May 1918.

Your Highness,

I have this day submitted through Mr Campbell proposals for the appointment, for one year in the first instance, of a new Member of Council. I have suggested that he may be called an additional Member of Council & have explained my reasons in the Sch.d Note. But Your Highness may be pleased to sanction the appointment of the new Officer with such designation as may seem most likely to your

My Lord,

After discussion of topics, your Lordship was pleased to say that Mr D Rajaveranda Rao may be appointed to the new Office. The pay of a Regular Member of Council has recently been fixed at Rs 2000 per annum - and if Mr Rajaveranda Rao is to be appointed as a Regular Member, he may perhaps be clarified on Rs 1.800. If he is appointed as a Member outside the Council, his pay may be fixed at Rs 1600-100-1800. I beg your Lordship may be pleased to pass orders on these points when in transmitting the Bill.

I have not yet moved in the matter of the retirement of Col Dewaldy Wijesinghe spoke to me in the matter but I prefer to take action after consulting his Lordship the Governor and obtaining fuller instructions from your Lordship -

I am,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's devoted & humble servant,

A. Wijesinghe -
